If you fail to cure the violations by SAMPLE*, your Rental Agreement will terminate on the date set forth below. If you timely cure the violations, your Rental Agreement will not terminate. Recurrence of substantially the same act or omission as any violation described above within six months from the date of this Notice may result in termination of your Rental Agreement with a 10-day notice and no opportunity to cure.

*If the violation is ongoing, the cure date must be at least 14 days (17 days if the notice is served by mail only) from the day after the date of service. If the violation was a separate and distinct act or omission that is not ongoing or sufficiently repetitive over time that it could be considered ongoing, the cure date can be as early as the date of delivery of the notice (or 3 days from the day after the date of service if served by mail only.)

If this termination notice is based upon a restriction regulating a portable cooling device allowed by law, the date of termination will be extended by one day for each day that there is an extreme heat event for the county of the premises. "Extreme heat event" means a day on which National Weather Service of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration has predicted or indicated that there exists a heat index of extreme caution for the county.
